RE: ASSUMED NAME FILING

Enclosed is an Assumed Name Certificate form. Complete this form, and have the business owner(s) sign it before a Notary Public. In order to file a business name that is located in the “unincorporated” area of the county, you must complete the Home Occupation Assessment form. If you have any questions about the Home Occupation Assessment form, please contact the Planning & Development office (618) 296-4468. If your business is a Limited Liability Company (LLC), you must file first with the Secretary of State’s Office and have documentation when filing your assumed name.

Illinois State Law requires that a legal notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the Certificate is filed. Such notice shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks. An Assumed Name Publication Fees List for Madison County, which includes the newspapers and their fees for the three publications, is enclosed. Please advise us in which newspaper you wish to publish so that we can take care of the publications for you.

Your personal check or money order for both the filing fee of $31.00 plus the publication fee should be made payable to Madison County Clerk. Please send your check and Assumed Name Certificate to Madison County Clerk, P. O. Box 218, Edwardsville, IL 62025.

GENERAL INFORMATION: All businesses, by Law, must have its names registered. Sole proprietorships and general partnerships must file with the county clerk's office. By registering your business name under the Assumed Business Name Act, does not prevent anyone from using your business name. Check the Fees Chart for filing and publication fees and the letter for specific filing instructions.

WHO MUST FILE: Anyone using a name (other than his/her own personal name, i.e. John Doe or Sally Smith) for his/her business. Note: By adding any word to your own personal name constitutes an assumed name (i.e. John Doe Company or Sally Smith Computer Service).

CORPORATE FILINGS: All corporations must file their names with the Secretary of State's Office. The Articles of Corporation are filed with the Recorder's Office. If the corporation is doing business as another name (i.e. TLC Lawns, Inc. d/b/a Bug-B-Gone), the corporation (TLC Lawns, Inc.) must file an assumed name certificate (Bug-B-Gone) with the County Clerk's office. At least one corporate officer must sign the assumed name certificate.
