

The Glen

Glenview, Illinois

Type of Development

The Glen is a 1,121 acre brownfield development on the site of a former military base. It is a mixed-use development with a town center that includes a commuter rail station.

Residential Development

2,221 units built

Commercial Development

450,000 square feet of commercial space built

Commercial Tenants

Several national chain retail stores
Mostly locally owned restaurants

Access to Transportation

4 miles (8 min.) to U.S. I-294
4 miles (8 min.) to U.S. I-94
14 miles (20 min.) to O'Hare International Airport

Milestones of the Development

- 1995 - Naval base closed and land given to the Village of Glenview
- 1998 - Master plan for The Glen completed
- 2001-2008 - 2,008 residential units constructed

The Glen

